CURRENT APPLICATION OF STANDARDS
Having developed a Policy in 2017 Vital Holdings Limited and its subsidiary's acknowledge the duties and responsibilities required under the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and are committed to conducting all aspects of our business in an ethical and transparent manner.

In common with other companies operating in the construction industry, the business model of subsidiaries in Vital Holdings Limited means that we work in partnership with a large number of sub-contractors and other suppliers to fulfil our commercial and contractual obligations to our customers. There are often a number of tiers of suppliers between Vital Holdings subsidiary companies (who often act as the Principal Contractor) and the labour and source of the materials used on our projects.

Applying a risk management approach, we are conscious therefore that the risk of modern slavery and human trafficking can occur within our operations, whether through direct employment, sub-contracted employees or the supply of materials. Accordingly, we manage both internal recruitment (through HR Policies) and supply chain management (through contractual order requirements) to mitigate the risk of modern slavery.

Interaction with suppliers tends to be controlled through Vital Energi Utilities Limited on behalf of all the businesses within Vital Holdings Limited. This is managed via our Human Resource, Commercial and Procurement teams. Our suppliers and associating contractors remain predominantly UK based, save for the supply of some key materials which are sourced from EU countries such as Poland, Denmark and Germany.

We are aware that the biggest slavery and human trafficking risks for Vital Energi lie in our supply chains, With the rise in the number of non UK nationals present within the UK labour market we seek to understand where in our supply chain(first tier and below) incorporate the use of temporary workers, through the use of employment agencies, is taking place and through induction and other processes we seek confirmation of individuals right to work in the UK.

Our whistleblowing policy includes and encourages employee to report wrongdoing in any form including bullying and exploitation.
